- [1] And now I, Moroni will give the account of _____ and his brother.
- [2] After the Lord had prepared the _____ which the brother of Jared carried up into the mountain, the brother of Jared put the stones in each vessel to give light.
- [3] And thus the Lord caused the stones to _____, in darkness, to give light unto men, women, and children, that they might not cross the great waters in darkness.
- [4] And it came to pass that when they had prepared all manner of food that thereby they might exist upon the water, and also _____ for their flocks and herds, and whatsoever beast or animal or fowl that they should carry with them, they got into their vessels or barges, and set forth into the sea, commending themselves unto the Lord their God.
- [5] And it came to pass that the Lord caused a furious _____ to blow upon the water towards the promised land.
- [6] And it came to pass that they were _____ in the depths of the sea, because of the mountainous waves which broke upon them.
- [7] And it came to pass that when they were buried in the deep there was no water that could hurt them, their vessels being tight like unto a _____ similar to the ark of Noah.
- [8] And it came to pass that the wind did never cease to _____ towards the promised land while they were upon the waters.
- [9] And they did _____ praises unto the Lord; yea, the brother of Jared did sing praises unto the Lord, and he did thank and praise the Lord all the day long and when the night came, they did not cease to praise the Lord.
- [10] And thus they were driven forth; and no monster of the sea could break them, neither whale that could mar them; and they did have _____ continually, whether it was above the water or under the water.
- [11] And thus they were driven forth, three hundred and forty and four _____ upon the water.
- [12] And they did land upon the shore of the promised land and when they set their feet upon the ground they _____ themselves down upon the face of the land, and did humble themselves before the Lord and did shed tears of joy before the Lord, because of the multitude of his tender mercies over them.
