

The Plan of Redemption – The Tree of Life

What does the plan of redemption mean to you? What value do you place on God's love?

What is my duty to God and my fellowman?

A. Check off what you view as your duty and/ or add to the list :

- Pray to increase in the love of God.
- Pray to accept the plan of redemption
- Pray for others to experience God's love and desire His salvation
- Pray for opportunities to tell others of God's love and the plan of redemption
- _____

Create a simple action plan for your list, and set a start date.

B. Ammon, the son of Mosiah, was given the opportunity to speak about God to the Lamanite king, Lamoni, who didn't know of God. He began to unfold the scriptures from the creation of the world. Many Lamanites were converted thereafter. (Alma chapter 18)

Can you imagine something similar happening to you?

What approach would you take when telling someone of God's plan of redemption?

C. Prior to Christ's birth and after His ascension, Christ appeared to many and they recorded seeing Him. (Ether 12:19-20) How many of these individuals can you name? (Cite scriptures)
